Best 1950 - 1959 1st Anthony Curzon, 1958 Norton Nomad 600cc. Dispatched in 1958 to Hap Jones Distributing Company, Norton importers, San Francisco USA. They were made for desert racing & dirt track racing, and only one 600cc Nomad was ever sold in England as the rest of the entire production was dispatched for export. There were seven distributors and importers of the Nomad into North America. Other Nomads went to Canada, Mexico, Venezuela, Japan, Guam, Hong Kong & Europe (Belgium & Denmark). Over 300 600cc Nomads were made, using a modified Norton ES2 frame with a stronger wider swinging arm, to take a larger scrambler tyre & twin Amal 276 1 1/16" carbs. The exhausts were special to the Nomads, and the dual seats were different colours to differentiate between the models on the test track. The 500cc Nomads had black top dual-seats with white sides, while 600cc Nomads had white top dual-seats with black sides. Norton OC (Surrey)
